1. Where are you from? Who introduced you to HBCUs?*

Born in Tampa, Fl . Raised in Adel, Georgia. My Aunt is a FAMU alum. so she took me to my first classic when i was 6 (Fam vs. Bcu) and ever since then I became more interested in learning more about HBCUs. Once I did my research I fell in love with the HBCU life, history & everything they stood for & I fell in love with FAMU in particular. [Were your guidance counselors knowledgeable about HBCUs? If not, where did you get all of your information from about the HBCUs you were thinking of attending?] My guidance counselor was knowledgeable.

2. Why did you choose an HBCU over a pwi?*

Me being a black female, in the world we live in today I wanted to be around my own people so I could encourage them & uplift them, be there to tell them "Keep it up, you're doing great!". Not just females, but males too. HBCUs have so much rich history & I feel as though when it comes to Colleges & universities HBCUs have the strongest "family" bond. FAMU. I chose to attend FAMU for their nursing & criminal justice. For the band, the school pride & the bond of the FAMUly.

[When did you send your application to the HBCU of your choice?] I actually sent mine my junior year, early graduation:)

9. What courses are you taking in high school in preparation for college? (Honours, AP, IB, electives, etc.)

[How would you describe your high school experience and environment?] My high school experience was great. I did everything I wanted to do, I meet a lot of new friends. The environment was nothing less than what Southern Hospitality has to offer:)

10. What advice would you give to other high school students thinking about their future?

Well, I am a junior but I'm an early graduate so take my advice with a grain of salt but I say, if you want to do something don't let anyone talk you out of it especially if it's something positive like early graduation. Live your life for YOU & enjoy HS, I feel like I was just a freshman the other day. Lol
