

Jeanettea Mayle, Paine College- c/o 2014, Sociology

Name : Jeanettea Mayle

Your HBCU : Paine College

Graduation Year : 2014

Major : Sociology

Minor : Criminology

1. Where are you from? Who introduced you to HBCUs?*

Oakland, California.

An Image of Haygood - Holsey Hall on Paine College's Beautiful Campus | Credit: Flickr

2. Why did you choose an HBCU over a pwi?*

Paine College was one of the many HBCU's at a college fair I attended in my hometown. The representative took the time out to get to know me and told me Paine College is a family environment and that I would love it.

3. What is the story of your "experience" at Your HBCU given its heralded status as a stellar and prestigious institution?*

When I first arrived at Paine College with my Father I wanted to turn back around. I thought I made a horrible decision and I didn't want to even give it a chance. I cried for months on the phone with my mom telling her Paine was not the college for me. My family supported me and told me to not give up and it would get better. I tried to find every excuse to transfer but now my thoughts about my school have totally changed. I love my PC!

4. "First time" experiences at your HBCU?*

No answer here - please keep scrolling :(

5. Who are the professors that have impacted your life in and out of the classroom? How did they do that?*

Mrs. Sharif is a math teacher at Paine. Mrs. Sharif pushed me to do better in math and helped me pass College Algebra. Mrs. Sharif would take time out the day to meet up with students off campus at a restaurant to tutor us. She would mentor us and also buy us food. Mrs. Sharif also gave great advice. She showed she really cared for her students and wasn't just there for a paycheck.

"Attendees of the NTNV 2006 Statewide Meeting observe a presentation given by Loretta Jones of Healthy African American Families.” Mrs. Sharif is on the far left in the black shirt” - Image Courtesy of scrccbpr’s photostream

6. Best restaurants on/near campus? Best dishes?

The best restaurant near the campus would have to be Teresa’s. Teresa’s is a Mexican Restaurant. I would order steak nachos every time.

7. College crush?

Didn’t have one. I tried the long distance relationship thing for awhile but after awhile we drifted apart.

8. Where are the spots to go to if you wanted to cuddle with your boy or girlfriend?

The riverwalk or the movies.

9. What are the chants heard most often at the sporting events?

“I love my PC!”