1. Where are you from? Who introduced you to HBCUs?*

Nashville, TN. Both parents are HBCU alumnus. Youngest of 19 grandchildren 16 of who attended an HBCU.

2. Why did you choose an HBCU over a pwi?*

I choose my HBCU because I wanted the black experience. To be fully immersed in a culture that was so far from monolithic but was a reflection of myself was a blessing.

3. What is the story of your "experience" at Your HBCU given its heralded status as a stellar and prestigious institution?*

I found myself at my HBCU. My talents, my refinement areas and how to practice self love by supporting people who look just like me.

4. "First time" experiences at your HBCU?*

First time studying abroad in Accra, Ghana.

5. Who are the professors that have impacted your life in and out of the classroom? How did they do that?*

The list is too extensive to really pinpoint a few of my professors. Each one Was a consistent support system in my journey to academic excellence.

6. How many "firsts" have you had at college ? What are they? (e.g. first road trip, first job interview, first love, first "F or A", etc.)
