1. Where are you from? Who introduced you to HBCUs?*

Both of my parents and a lot of my family members attended and became alumni.

The Dillard Legacy runs deep pictured is "Dillard University alumnus Exodie Roe III (on the right) with California's 3rd District Court of Appeals Judge Bill Murray"

2. Why did you choose an HBCU over a pwi?*

Well my original choosing of Dillard was to continue the legacy. Both of my parents and a lot of my family members attended and became alumni.

3. What is the story of your "experience" at Your HBCU given its heralded status as a stellar and prestigious institution?*

I love my experience thus far. Since it is my junior year at Dillard obviously I cant wait until senior year but until then my years at Dillard have been great and beyond. I love the networking of future professionals within my field and outside. Just the fact that most of these students will be big names and do bigger and greater things after leaving Dillard just excites me!

4. "First time" experiences at your HBCU?*

5. Who are the professors that have impacted your life in and out of the classroom? How did they do that?*

Prof. Clark who always encourages me to go for something or if i have an idea to go ahead and make it come to life. Also there is Prof. Morris who has just inspired me soooo much to take the Film industry by force but with a humble spirit.

Avenue of the Oaks

6. Best restaurants on/near campus? Best dishes?

The Grill has to be the best place to eat by far on campus! I love that Ultimate Cheeseburger with Ultimate Sauce! Yummy!

7. Where are the spots to go to if you wanted to cuddle with your boy or girlfriend?

Outside on the Avenue of the Oaks would be the best spot.

8. What are the chants heard most often at the sporting events?

Dddddddddd Uuuuuu!!
