1. Where are you from? Who introduced you to HBCUs?*

I am from Pompano Beach, Florida and HBCUs are just a way of life in my family. My daddy went to Talladega, Prairie View and Howard. My sister went to UDC and Howard and I go to FAMU.

Cherished Moments are made nationwide at our HBCUs everyday!

2. Why did you choose an HBCU over a pwi?*

It's what was expected of me and it's a tradition in my family. PWIs don't do a well enough job of preparing blacks for today's world. I <3 My HBCU. FAMU was my 2nd choice. Howard was my 1st. I had some application errors with Howard and it was too late to re-apply when I realized this. So a recruiter from FAMU who's also a FAMU alum and a graduate of my High School came and visited in search of our top 10 students. I was in the top 40. I told her my GPA and test scores. She offered me a scholarship; Within 2 weeks I applied and within a month I was accepted.

3. What is the story of your "experience" at Your HBCU given its heralded status as a stellar and prestigious institution?*

FAMU has simply changed my life. It has made me a better man and I thank her for that

4. "First time" experiences at your HBCU?*

First time campaigning.

5. Who are the professors that have impacted your life in and out of the classroom? How did they do that?*

I really enjoyed Dr. Cohen, Ms. Sermon, Professor Reis, and Dr. Dukurugu because they taught with passion and cared about their students.
